Increasing Oriental Trade—Annual Meeting of Illinois Central—Texas Construction—Appointments—Notes.

New York, Sept. 26.—The annual report of the Great Northern for the fiscal year, as filed today, shows an increase of 23.25 per cent in gross earnings on the main line, and a decrease of 10.25 per cent in earnings of proprietary companies. Net earnings increased $1,282,000, and the total income gained $2,252,000. Fixed charges decreased $202,000, but dividends paid on Great Northern stock were $2,072,000 larger than in 1899, the final surplus being $5,095,000, against $3,000,000 in 1899.

President Hill says that the growing Oriental trade has already reached the point where it is practically limited to the ships which can be secured to carry the commodities seeking an outlet to China and Japan.

Referring to the crop situation, he says that the situation is not so bright as it appears. The crop will be marketed, but it will reduce the earnings of cereals, but it will reduce the earnings of cereals, but it will reduce the earnings of cereals.

Sand Blast Car for Bridges.

At the Columbus bridge of the Panhandle they have developed a sand blast car to be used for cleaning bridges before they are repainted. The contrivance consists of a flat car with an engine on top and a compressor. Before bridges can be repainted it is necessary to clean the iron and steel work, and this is a slow and expensive task when it has to be done by hand. The sand blast car does the work quickly and economically. A hose attached to the car conveys the sand and blast on any part of the bridge or building where it may be required.
